CLUBWOMAN COLLECT

Keep us, oh God, from pettiness;
Let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.
Let us be done with fault-finding
And leave off self-seeking.
May we put away all pretense
And meet each other face to face,
Without self-pity and without prejudice.
May we never be hasty in judgment
And always generous.
Let us take time for all things;
Make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses,
Straightforward and unafraid.
Grant that we may realize it is
The little things that create differences,
That in the big things of life we are at one.
And may we strive to touch and to know
The great, common human heart of us all.
And, oh Lord God, let us forget not
To be kind.

Mary Stewart, April 1904

*Suzanne Byrd Poyner
President, 2012-2014*

Dear GFWC-Mississippi Federation of Women's Club Members and Guests,

Are you ready for a "CELEBRATION"? Well, you are in the right place! Welcome to the 116th GFWC-Mississippi Federation of Women's Clubs State Convention at the Hilton Hotel on County Line Road in Jackson, Mississippi. Not only will we CELEBRATE while we conduct business, but Mississippi Clubwomen will share ideas and enjoy fun and fellowship with Federation Friends.

District II is the host for the 116th Convention. District II President Anne McKee and Clubwomen of District II have planned a great time of "CELEBRATION"! Many thanks to each of you in District II who have volunteered your time so graciously to plan and prepare for these special three days! Our Mississippi Clubwomen are in for a delightful time!

Also, I would like to extend my appreciation to Diane Rouse, GFWC-MFWC Treasurer. Diane has spent many hours on the phone, computer or busy with paperwork as our Meeting Liaison with the Hilton Hotel. Thank you, Diane, for all the "behind the scenes" preparation for a successful 116th GFWC-MFWC State Convention. This Program Booklet is made possible by the technological expertise of Lisa Harris, GFWC-MFWC Website/Handbook Chairman. Thank you, Lisa, for a job well done! Also, the ads are amazing! Your support of the 116th Convention by sponsoring an ad in the Program Booklet is overwhelming! Thank you!

How special it is to have Jackie Boland, GFWC Southern Region Vice President, with us throughout the Convention. Jackie joins us from South Carolina. During the GFWC International Convention in Arizona, Jackie will be installed as GFWC Southern Region President. We welcome you to Mississippi, Jackie! Now, we will be sure to show you our MFWC Hospitality!

To celebrate Federation Day on Thursday, April 24, a "Special Guest from GFWC History" is on program. (Hmmm...Could it be GFWC Founder, Jane Cunningham Crowley better known as "Jennie June"?) At Opening Ceremonies Mississippi's Lieutenant Governor Tate Reeves is planning to be on hand to WELCOME us. Our speaker for our Friday Luncheon is Rebecca Mansell, Executive Director of Prevent Child Abuse Mississippi. What a perfect time to discover more about a GFWC Partner! During the CELEBRATION Banquet on Friday Evening, Southern Region Vice President Jackie Boland will speak and install our new GFWC-MFWC Officers for 2014-2016. A reception hosted by the GFWC-MFWC Civic Woman's Club of Picayune honoring Darlene and Jackie will follow the Installation in the Hilton Penthouse. Cyndi Grace of Clinton will be the inspirational speaker during our Prayer Breakfast.

I am happy to say that our Convention music will be brought by three of our own Mississippi Clubwomen. During Opening Ceremonies, Janae Winters of the GFWC-MFWC Fine Arts Club of Bruce will share her talent by singing the National Anthem. Carolyn Huey, MFWC Past President, and Ada McGrevey, President of the GFWC-MFWC Decatur Progressive Woman's Club will bring the music for the Prayer Breakfast. We are in for a treat! Many thanks!

I know that you join me in welcoming Darlene Adams as your next MFWC President. Darlene and I have made the "Perfect PAIR" as we have traveled together representing MFWC. If I may quote from Darlene's District Installations, MFWC is going to be "WILD" about her plans for our Mississippi Federation!

Outstanding Volunteer work was reported by MFWC Clubs in their communities, states, country as well as internationally. Awards will be presented throughout the Convention to CELEBRATE this work! What a difference MFWC Clubwomen have made as they were Living the Volunteer Spirit!

Thank you for joining this 116th CELEBRATION of GFWC-MFWC and for CELEBRATING "Freedom to Volunteer"!

May God Bless America!

Suzanne

Honoring Past GIFTS while Celebrating the PRESENT
...FREEDOM to Volunteer!
GFWC-MFWC President's Special Project
Suzanne Byrd Poynor
2012 - 2014

The United States has been blessed with many GIFTS. One of these is FREEDOM. Through the years, brave women and men have fought battles to ensure this FREEDOM. Through the President's Special Project, "Freedom to Volunteer", our Clubwomen have dedicated their volunteer efforts to Honoring PAST GIFTS as well as Celebrating the PRESENT by participating in projects and programs to enhance the lives and memories of those who fought selflessly with great sacrifice to guarantee our FREEDOMS.

My father, Victor Lewis Byrd, was one of these men. He was part of The Mighty Eighth Air Force in WWII. He flew as a waist gunner on a B-24 Liberator, out of the 466th Bomb Group at Attlebridge, England. On April 1, 1944, he and his crew were on a bombing mission to Brunswick. They had eleven people on board, ten crew members plus a photographer. As they flew low so the photographer could get some good photographs, they ran into some intense flak and were badly crippled. They were given the orders to bail out. My father, one of the three survivors, evaded capture by the Germans and was picked up by a French family who kept him hidden several months until the allied armies reached the area and liberated him.

Many of our Mississippi Clubwomen have shared their own stories from wars, past and present, of loved ones who are HEROES of the United States of America.

Thank you for joining me as MFWC Clubwomen participated in programs and projects that have bettered the lives of our Veterans and Service Men and Women in our communities, state, and internationally. MFWC Clubwomen celebrated the PRESENT, OUR ACTIVE MILITARY, their accomplishments, with honor and appreciation. We, also, have paid tribute to the legacy of Past Gifts, OUR VETERANS for ENSURING OUR FREEDOM. May God CONTINUE to Bless the United States of America!

SPEAKERS AND ENTERTAINMENT

JACKIE BOLAND. Jackie Boland has been a GFWC member for 30 years. She is a past state president of GFWC-SC and is a member and past president of Woman's Club of the Midlands. On the national level she has served GFWC as Beautification Chairman, Constitution and By-laws committee member, Membership committee member, Legislation/Public Policy committee member and Credentials committee member.

Presently Jackie is second Vice President responsible for membership for Woman's Club of the Midlands, Vice President of Maxine's Millennium Belles and Vice President of Southern Region.

Jackie has been married to Donnie Boland for 33 years. They have a son, Travis and daughter and son-in-law, Tracey and Kevin. Their at home child right now is Oscar the dog. She works for Columbia Green, a non-profit organization which promotes beautification of the metropolitan Columbia area through landscaping, gardening, horticulture, education and conservation. Jackie is excited and honored to be representing Southern Region as President during the 2014-2016 administration.

CYNDI GRACE. Cyndi Grace was born in Denver, Colorado into a military family. She became a Christian at the age of 10 in Atwater, California, and at the age of 18 in Long Beach, MS felt God calling her into full-time Christian ministry.

She is a graduate of Mississippi College and has a Women's Ministry advanced certificate degree from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. She and her husband, Jerry, have two grown children.

In 1993, Cyndi's "perfect life" crashed around her and she had to accept that she had been relying on her perceived perfection and not God's grace. From that time God has richly blessed her with a heart for worship and a desire to minister to women who have hurts and needs in their lives.

Cyndi stays busy leading in conferences and retreats as well as an ongoing weekly Bible study. She feels that her call is to the woman in the pew who is searching for more!

REBECCA MANSELL. (Not pictured) Rebecca Mansell is the Director of the Children's Justice Center, which is the Statewide Center of Excellence for Forensic Child Abuse examinations. The Children's Justice Center is located at the University of Mississippi Medical Center. Rebecca is also the Executive Director of Prevent Child Abuse Mississippi, which is housed at the CJC at the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

The Speaker of the House, Philip Gunn, recently appointed Rebecca to the Commission on the Status of Women. In this position, she is focusing on the improvement of the overall quality of life of women, specifically in the areas of education, health, economics and political participation. She is also one of fifty-two individuals throughout the state was chosen to participate in the prestigious program, Leadership Mississippi.

Rebecca is a former career prosecutor with 17 years of service to the State of Mississippi. She prosecuted mainly child homicide and abuse cases and sex crimes against women. Rebecca's entire career has been focused on ensuring the health and well-being of women and children in the State of Mississippi.

Rebecca is married to Creede Mansell, a trooper for the Mississippi State Highway Patrol and she has two children, Jacob and Grace.

ANNE B. MCKEE. Anne B. McKee is a Mississippi storyteller and author. She is a Literary and Performing Artist and Teaching Artist – teaching creative writing for children and adults. Anne is listed in both capacities on the Mississippi Arts Commission's Artist/Teaching Artist Rosters -- www.arts.state.ms.us. Anne has been a guest storyteller for Mississippi Public Broadcasting (Radio) Commentaries Program, Paul Ott's Listen to the Eagle radio show and several additional radio stations throughout the state. She is active with the arts and educational communities in Mississippi. She writes a weekly editorial for The Meridian Star - www.themeridianstar.com. Her work can be found in Mississippi Magazine, Today's Mississippi Woman, LEGENDS Magazine, Sweet Tea & Afternoon Tales, Pets Across American Vol I & II, and recently released Magnolias & Afternoon Tales, plus several anthologies and southern journals. Anne's recent book project, Historic Photos of Mississippi, published, Turner Publishing, Nashville, continues to be a bestseller for the publisher and available at most bookstores throughout the Southeast. Remembering Mississippi is an additional book for Turner Publishing Co. Anne is the Director of Rose Hill Cemetery Costumed Tour, Meridian, presented each last Saturday in September. She serves as GFWC-MFWC, District II, President, and as Regent, Bobashela Chapter, Mississippi Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Anne visits many civic clubs, community clubs, festivals and conventions, churches, schools, and libraries spinning her Mississippi-inspired stories. See her web site -- www.annemckee.net.

LT. GOV. TATE REEVES. Elected in 2011 as Mississippi's Lieutenant Governor, Tate Reeves stands ready to guide the state toward a brighter future by improving educational achievement for students, supporting the creation of high-skilled jobs and responsibly managing taxpayers' money. Reeves leads the 52-member Senate with a focus on keeping government spending under control, reforming education and making Mississippi a better place to raise a family. Under his leadership, Mississippi has a balanced budget that spends more on education and adequately funds other priorities, including filling the state's "rainy day fund" to its statutory limit and reducing taxpayers' overall debt burden.

Mississippi increased education spending and enacted reforms to save money, strengthen achievement and clearly communicate school performance. Reeves successfully advocated for more transparent school district ratings, which led to a new grading system for schools based on A, B, C, D and F. The first steps toward school choice were taken with the creation of public charter schools, and legislation passed to end social promotion of students who cannot read at grade level. After decades of legislators talking about school district consolidation, Reeves took action by pushing for administrative consolidation, bringing the number of districts in Mississippi to 146 from 152.

The Legislature approved several measures to make Mississippi an even better place to do business. Reeves believes government should create an environment to encourage the private sector to create more jobs. The Legislature laid the groundwork by allowing businesses to claim a tax credit on inventory held in the state, which will encourage companies to invest more capital in creating jobs. The state's workers' compensation law also was reformed to ensure a fairer and impartial relationship between the worker and employer with provisions to better define the employee's choice of physician, implement stronger measures against workplace drug and alcohol use and increase certain benefits. Laws also were enhanced to boost Mississippi's reputation as a place to do business and strengthen the state's right-to-work policies.

Reeves pushed several measures to strengthen public safety and make Mississippi a safe place to raise a family. The Legislature has passed laws to allow for the prosecution of attempted murder and closely monitor sex offenders using GPS devices. He is committed to protecting Mississippians' Second Amendment Rights by supporting laws that clarify the limits on the ability of cities and counties to restrict the carrying of firearms. Several new laws protect the state's most vulnerable citizens – children. Reeves' initiative to help school districts hire trained law enforcement for campus protection will place more officers in schools. The Child Protection Act requires health care professionals, members of the clergy, educators, child care providers and law enforcement to report cases of suspected child abuse. Also, the Legislature has taken steps to protect the health of the mother by requiring doctors performing abortion to have admitting privileges at a local hospital and prohibiting abortions after 20 weeks.

Reeves serves as chairman of the Republican Lieutenant Governors Association. Reeves was named a 2013 Charter Champion by the National Alliance for Public Charter Schools. Reeves received the 2012 State Legislative Achievement Award from the U.S. Chamber Institute for Legal Reform for passage of the Attorney General "Sunshine Act," which requires an open and transparent process for awarding legal contracts. He was named Legislator of the Year by the Mississippi Municipal League in 2012.

Previously, Reeves was elected as Mississippi's 53rd Treasurer in 2003 and re-elected to a second term four years later with 61 percent of the vote, the highest percentage of any candidate running for statewide office. He was the first Republican treasurer in the state's history.

Reeves has been named a "Rising Star(s) in the Republican Party" by Rising Tide magazine – the publication of the Republican National Committee. He also was selected by the Aspen Institute's Rodel Fellowships in Public Leadership as one of the "Top Young Elected Officials" to its Fourth Class of Aspen-Rodel Fellows.

Reeves is a Rankin County native and a graduate of Florence High School. He is an honors graduate of Millsaps College and holds a bachelor's degree in economics. Reeves has continued to be an active alumnus and remains involved with his alma mater by serving as a member of the investment policy board for the Millsaps College General Louis Wilson Fund and a member the Advisory Committee of the Else School of Management.

Reeves and his wife Elee Williams Reeves, a Tylertown native, are the proud parents of three daughters, Sarah Tyler, Elizabeth Magee and Madeline Tate. The Reeves family attends Galloway Memorial United Methodist Church, where Elee and Tate co-chaired a past Capital Campaign.

Let There Be Peace On Earth

Let there be peace on earth
 And let it begin with me.
 Let there be peace on earth
 The peace that was meant to be.
 With God as our Father
 Brothers all are we.
 Let me walk with my brother
 In perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me,
 Let this be the moment now.
 With every step I take
 Let this be my solemn vow;
 To take each moment
 And live each moment
 With peace eternally.
 Let there be peace on earth,
 And let it begin with me.

Congratulations!

Greetings from Anne B. McKee

On behalf of my buddies: Miss Ippee Rainwater, entrepreneur extraordinaire, and Miss Fannie B. Hine, bodyguard/super sleuth and mob control expert, along with the somewhat opinionated Committee esteemed members, I would like to sincerely thank you for loving us, or at least for putting up with us, as we travel the world offering exceptional, although somewhat disturbina advice.

Look for us, as we might turn up in your neighborhood one moonless night, or at least on ~America's Most Wanted~ we do get around.

Keep us in mind for an interesting, if not a downright weird program (I think weird counts twice. when reoportina). We do

- ❖ Libraries -- Summer Reading Program (storytelling) for children and storytelling for Friends of the Library
- ❖ Creative writing classes for adults and children
- ❖ Storytelling for festivals, community clubs, churches, schools, civic clubs

Remember our motto: A smile a day can "fix" almost anything.
