

Jammie's Tidbits

Dear Fellow Clubwomen:

June is here and that means many things for our club women:

1. Clubs take a break from meetings and enjoy the summer – even though many are still involved in numerous community projects during that time.

Hot weather too!!

2. Clubs begin to plan for the next club year.—Thankfully, every club has the guidelines from GFWC and can plan meetings, programs, and projects accordingly.

GFWC Manual aka summer reading

3. Carolyn Huey, Judy Martin, JoAnne Reid, Ivous Sisk, Diane Rouse, Rowena Drinkwater, Suzanne Poyner and I are headed to Milwaukee, WI for the GFWC International Convention. It is my distinct pleasure to represent all of the Mississippi Club Women at this international event. I have been asked to bring the Opening Session Thought for the Day – so please remember me on the morning of June 18th – I might be just a little nervous!!!!

Proud to be a Mississippian!!!!

4. During the GFWC Convention, we are so excited to be able to participate in the State Showcase event on Monday afternoon. Diane Rouse has collected numerous items for us to sell and to help promote Mississippi. (She even has some note cards and emery boards that everyone in attendance at that convention will think that they MUST have.)

Shopping – what can I say!!!!

5. Finally we will have a MFWC Summer Board meeting on June 25th at MFWC Headquarters in Jackson. We will look forward to seeing board members and guests. We will be sure to notify everyone about the awards that MFWC received during the GFWC Convention and work on plans for our next year.

How many Mississippi Awards? I cannot wait to find out!!!!

Just Unbelievable
Needs
Exist

Thank you for reaching out to others that are in need of assistance and for being a vital part of TEAM MFWC: One Strong Voice for Volunteerism.

Love in Volunteer Service
